

A MARRIAGE OF FAITH

The thing that moves God most is our faith. The Word says that without faith it is impossible to please God.

I. A marriage of faith stays together despite _____.

Colossians 3:13-15 NLT

¹³ “Make allowance for each other’s faults and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. ¹⁴ Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony.”

a. Unity is not the same as _____.

b. What makes this possible?

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Matthew 6:33 NKJV

II. A marriage of faith is always willing to take _____ while expecting God results.

a. Faith without works is dead.

Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” Mark 9:23

God always allows _____ to exercise our faith as a marriage and family. It is in the trial that we are given the opportunity to _____ and mature.

III. A marriage of faith is aware of the _____ it leaves for its future generations.

a. Leaving a legacy for our future is about living our today _____ God.

Good people leave an inheritance to their grandchildren. Proverbs 13:22 NLT

We must live our relationships aware that we are breaking ground for our future generations.

b. This world needs marriages of faith willing to leave a legacy for society.

Today more than ever it is necessary to maintain firm convictions about the institution of marriage.

IV. A marriage of faith is a marriage that _____.

a. The most powerful resource in a marriage of faith is prayer.

Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God’s peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:6-7

Pastor Dale spent a whole Sunday talking to us about having a house of prayer. This is vital for all relationships. Prayer has many benefits for every area of our lives and specially when it comes to relating to one another. If God is _____ in your relationship, prayer is a split second away.

(Answers: Differences, uniformity II. steps, trials, grow III. legacy, honoring IV. prays, first)
