

Becoming Childlike

"I Wanna Grow up to be a Child" Tommy Walker

Ice Breaker:

- 1) What were you like as a child?
- 2) What is one childlike behavior that you admire or wish you had?

Discussion Questions:

1) Kids talk to themselves:

- a. How has your-self talk been lately?
- b. Prov. 18:21
- c. What are 3 life-giving phrases that you can speak to your soul this week?

2) Kids have faith

- a. Mark 9:24 "Help my unbelief."
- b. Luke 5:12-13 "I want to"
- c. What is something that you are believing God for. Imagine Him telling you, "I WANT TO!"
- d. Is there anything that you have stopped believing God for?

3) Kids grow.

- a. Make a progress report! What are 5-10 things that you have made progress in over this past year.

- b. Now celebrate with your group over these things.

4) Kids are humble.

- a. Read Philippians 2: 2-5 together. (Read it in the NIV, Message and the Passion Translation)
- b. What does humility mean to you?
- c. We talked about 5 fruits of humility. (Honor, Promotion, Wisdom, Grace, Joy) Do you have any relationships that you need more of these fruits? Is God inviting you to humble yourself? What would that look like?

- 5) God is a perfect parent! Just like Laynie laid on Anna's chest and said, "Mom, you're my superhero," what is one thing that you can tell your "perfect daddy" today?
