PARENT TIPS

Read the key point from the Sunday school class your child(ren) attended. Use the Table Talk questions to start a discussion around the dinner table during the week. The Living Faith activity encourages your family to make a thankfulness chain. The Extra Mile takes your family to an inspirational video that talks about Paul's life.

GET THE POINT

Jesus saves us if we believe in him. I can choose to believe.

TABLE TALK

- Paul and Silas traveled around preaching about God. Some people loved them; others wanted to hurt them. One time they were arrested and chained up in jail. Instead of feeling sorry for themselves, they sang and prayed to God. Why were they doing this?
- How would you act if you were thrown in jail? Would you sing? Would you be scared?
- Why weren't Paul and Silas scared?
- A powerful earthquake opened all the jail doors and made the chains fall off. Why didn't Paul and Silas escape?
- The jailer nearly killed himself when he saw the prison doors open because his punishment would've been death if the prisoners escaped. But Paul shouted, "We're all here." The jailer immediately wanted to know how to be saved and how he could serve Paul's God. Talk about how witnessing with actions can sometimes be more effective than telling people about God with words.

LIVING FAITH

Paul endured many trials for his faith. Through everything, he remained hopeful and thankful. For this family activity, you'll need pieces of colored construction paper, scissors, markers or pens, and glue. Gather your family and explain that Paul spent a lot of time in chains, but it didn't let anything dampen his faith. Paul said, "How can we thank God enough" (1 Thessalonians 3:9).

Create a thankfulness chain as a family by cutting construction paper into 8-inch strips that are about one-and-a-half inches wide. (Regular white paper would work, too.) Have each family member take five to ten strips of paper. Write down something you're thankful for on each strip. Then glue the ends of the strip together to create a chain link. Make sure the words are on the inside of the link. Interlock the links as other family members write what they're thankful for and watch your chain grow. Try not to say what you're writing down on your chain. When everybody's finished and a long chain is created, hang it over a doorway. Leave it hanging for a few days and then plan a time to get together as a family again. Tear off a link of the chain and read what's on the inside. Have the person who wrote that message explain why they're thankful. Keep going until you've totally dismantled the chain. Thank God for breaking the chains in your life and giving you so much to be thankful for!

EXTRA MILE

God doesn't want us to live half-heartedly for him. He wants our total commitment. He wants us to be passionate about the things he's passionate about. He wants us to have the faith to persevere like Paul.

Go to YouTube and watch "Ray Vander Laan—Run!" It's at www.youtube.com/watch?v=Cizsb_GE_zc. After you've watched this short video, talk about Ray's message.
