

WEIRD LIFE GROUP BIBLE APPLICATION QUESTIONS WEEK 1

MEMORY VERSE

“Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.” (Romans 12:2 NLT)

Ice Breaker

Introduce yourself and answer the question, “What is something you’ve either worn or eaten that people thought was really weird.”

Sermon Discussion Questions

1. Can you think of an example of some way people thought you were weird when you started to follow Jesus? How did you handle or respond to people’s judgments or criticisms?
2. What are ways you have or are feeling pressure to conform to the world’s way of thinking or doing things that you need to be challenged to take a stand against?
3. What are thoughts or ways of thinking you have or need to confront that lead you towards compromise? What is one thought from God’s Word that helped you live a new normal recently? How did you put that thought into practice?
4. Have you ever had something from God’s Word offend your mind? How did you respond to that conflict?
 - a. Try to ignore
 - b. Decide to not believe that what you think God is saying is true
 - c. Rationalize it
 - d. Let it reveal something in your heart that you needed to surrender and yield up what you don’t understand in trust that you know God has your best interests in mind.
5. What is an example of an “American Idol” that has tried to press in to take the place of your first love for Jesus Christ?
6. When it comes to returning to your first love Dale quoted Craig Groeschel’s saying, “If you want to get back what you once had you must do what you once did.” What is an example of things you’ve done when you had first love affection for Jesus that you especially feel committed to keep doing or need to decide to start doing again?
7. As you look at the “Weird” survey. What stood out as something you feel like you want to commit to being much more the God kind of weird in?
