

ALL STORIES COME TO AN “END” THE STORY, CHAPTER 31

“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.” Revelation 22:13

Questions for Discussion

1. Share a memory of a time when you were having so much fun or enjoying life so much that you didn't want it to end?
2. When you think about the Book of Revelation and the “end” times, what goes through your mind?
 - a) Fear of the future
 - b) Interested in learning more about Bible prophecy
 - c) Excitement for being with the Lord soon
 - d) Urgency to tell my family and friends about the love of Jesus
3. When you think about the length of your life in comparison to eternity, what action steps do you think God is calling you to?
 - a) Repent of compromise or sin, and start living for the Lord
 - b) Stop going through my day as “normal” and ask God to show me what He is doing today
 - c) Trade my fear of sharing about Jesus for boldness and courage
 - d) Change the way I spend my money, to make eternal investments instead of investments in my own personal comfort
4. Jesus warned us to not let our hearts be “dulled” by this life. What is one of the primary distractions you face on a regular basis?
 - a) Financial pressure
 - b) Relational conflict
 - c) Addiction
 - d) Being pulled into the world's system of pleasure
 - e) Grief or pain from past loss or hurts
5. Jesus gave us the most beautiful love story ever written (the Bible). Where do you need a greater revelation of Jesus's love today?
 - a) That He hasn't forgotten me in my time of trouble
 - b) That He never wanted for that bad thing to happen to me
 - c) That He knows my every need, and wants to bring my heart into alignment to receive all that He has for me
 - d) That He can heal my heart and mind